WHERE:

McLean County Extension Office
402 N. Hershey Road, Bloomington, IL 61704
(309) 663-8306

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

- K-12 teachers specializing in economics, business, math, consumer economics, consumer and family sciences, social studies, history, and reading.
- Counselors and educators specializing in career/life skills who have students/clients in need of financial literacy training.
- Financial education providers working with youth and limited-resource audiences through the non-profit, public, and private sectors.

DESCRIPTION:

This Learning, Earning, and Investing (LEI) training conference focuses on helping educators teach youth and limited-resource audiences about the basics of investing and how to make smart investment decisions. The training will showcase Gen I Revolution, LEI's exciting new online game where participants become secret operatives and are assigned various missions to help save the world from widespread financial despair. Each mission focuses on key savings and investment concepts covered in the LEI curriculum. Rob Mehan from the Illinois Secretary of State's Securities Department will talk about long-run financial security, investment fraud, and how to protect your assets. Conference participants will receive FREE the Learning, Earning, and Investing curriculum materials, access to the Gen I Revolution game, and numerous investment education links, simulations, and other activities to share with students and clients.
